From the files of BigHugs.Com, three unforgettable true stories of real people who have been separated from their soul mates, and their quests to be reunited. This fun and helpful book is one's girl's autobiography. She grew with many of life's experiences meeting all kinds of people from all walks of life. Learn how to keep the love of friendship strong and well in spite of the odds. Learn how to experience nature and reap its benefits. Learn the nature of true love. The main reason we lose love is because it was not true love to begin with. Then there are people who come into our lives to give us temporary help. They serve a good purpose, but these relationships usually fade when the help is no longer needed. Her first husband claimed to love her, but he did not show it. He was seldom home. The heroine shows how to get what you want when you want something so badly. She reaches her goals against all odds. Nothing stops her from getting an education. Her love for the French language came to her quite by chance. She seized the opportunity to learn French and fell in love with it. The heroine's son also learned how to cope with life's problems. Like his mother, he beat the bullies without lifting a finger. He has the gift of gab. His mother has the gift of writing. He can talk to anyone anytime about anything. His mother will write down every happening. She is also his confidant and ally against a sometimes cruel world. He is an only child, but he is not spoiled. As you will see, he is quite an actor. You will laugh through the book. At times, you may cry, but not for long. The book is up beat with a little drama as life unfolds. So hold onto your seat for the ride of your life. This creative work, compiled solely of Mitzi and David Libsohn's original verses of poetry and letters of love, is an artistic effort, by their daughter, Pauli Rose Libsohn, relating to and involving their lives throughout the years, in essence, telling their story. Their passion "unleashed" their creative energy and can be observed in these "messages of love," composed for all and various occasions, written on gorgeous greeting cards purchased, with that very love, which they believed warranted these, their intimate communiques, belonging solely to them. Mitzi and David Libsohn spoke the language of love through the written word, and thrilled to the sight of a card or letter, for they knew they would be the recipient of those precious "messages of love." With this original compilation, author Pauli Rose Libsohn has brought insight into how generations before, "spoke" in this uniquely non-verbal style of passion, exchanging words in beautiful penmanship, putting it all down on gorgeous cards and paper. The art of love's expression is practically non-existent in today's world. Lovers of years gone by, have been lost to the ages, but with this discovered work, Pauli is able to show the true meaning of Love's written word. A collection of stories which will tug at the heart-strings of animal lovers everywhere, 'The Miracle at Battersea Dogs Home' features warm tales celebrating the power of animals to transform people's lives. I Found Love: My Journey of Hope, Perseverance, and Finding True Love is the travail of an immigrant whose life was shaped and molded by her mother into the strong woman the author is today. Through this expedition of joy, pain, and tragedy, readers will discover how the author found and learned what true, unconditional love is. Countless stories. One incredible ending. A major league baseball player. a Tennessee pastor. A reality TV star. a single mom. A multi-platinum rocker. What do these people have in common? They've all hit bottom. And none of them stayed there. Famous or unfamiliar, these are the stories of real people who reached the end of their strength, the end of their control, and found the most surprising truths. It taught them not to rely on self or substance but to lean on the only completely reliable source of love, hope, and freedom: the God who created them. Shocking in their honesty, inspiring in their courage, these testimonies are critical reminders that no one is too far from God to find him. Join these and thousands more who have discovered the lifechanging power in putting God first and proclaiming, "I am Second." By the groundbreaking author of the award-winning Monster—a visionary who influenced and inspired a generation—this story take us back to the world of 145th Street: Short Stories to show how love can be found, and thrive, in the most unlikely places. Curtis finds love in Iraq as he struggles to stay alive in a war he doesn't want to fight, and Letha discovers her own beauty in the love of her child. There is the "good daughter" who realizes that there's only one way to help her brother and her family. Other stories center on the daily drama of the Curl-E-Que beauty shop, or capture the slapstick side of passion. Agatha Redmond, an heiress and a singer was kidnapped. Jim Hambletonher, her plucky rescuer which actually speaks volumes about the light-hearted tone of this amiable but undercooked romance.Excerpt from The Stolen Singer.Miss Redmond was moving up the steps toward the entrance, hesitating between the desire to snub her interlocutor and to avoid the appearance of fright. The man, meanwhile, moved easily beside her, courteously distant, discourteously insistent in his prattle. But the motor-car was now not far away.The stranger looked appealingly at her, seemingly sure of a humorous answering look to his pleasantry. It was not wholly denied. She yielded to a touch of amusement with a cool smile, and hastened her steps. The man kept pace without effort. Luckily, the car stood only a few feet away, with Renaud, or rather Hand, at the curb, holding open the door. A vague bow and a lifting of the hat, and apparently the stranger went the other way. She felt a foolish relief, and at the same instant noted with surprise that the cover of her car had been raised. There is no excitement for him in Albuquerque but plenty of sand and cactus. Love: Lost & Found is Anushree's first book comprising multifarious poems that she desired to publish before completing her teenage. The book is divided into two sections the first section encompassing a wrecked heart's loss 'Lost' and the second section expressing the joy of finding love & settling 'Found'. Through this book, she aims to connect with the reader's desolation and ecstasy when they lose and find love respectively. Love Lost and Found is a series of poems centred around three themes; losing love, finding love and love that has expired, such as living through divorce and co-parenting. The title Love Lost and Found is referencing a poem that Eryn wrote when they were 16 and this series of poems is their attempt at answering the questions posed within the poem. There are poems about romantic love and breakups but there are also poems about family, friends, children and even the Cat. Because love comes in all forms. The purpose of the book is to encourage women to fully embrace their journeys of healing and living a life of wholeness personified, which is our Divine habitat. We accomplish this by bringing awareness to root sources of brokenness. We are all in a constant state of becoming, and awareness is a colorful key to understanding your healing and wholeness process. Poems of Love and Pain is meant to show that people aren't alone in this world and that others have the same feelings that they do. This collection of poems and letters were sent to ladies I have loved though the years. It includes my feelings, hopes, dreams, love, and my pain. My heart and soul are trapped between these lines, showing my raw emotions and letting the ink flow to express myself the only way I can. I was born July 19, 1976 in Brooklyn, New York. I have two sisters and loving parents, but I've had a hard time dealing with love and the pain it can bring. I'm very romantic and my feelings get hurt easily. I love big and get hurt big. I'm the type who will love a woman endlessly and forever. I began writing at age 16 and never stopped. Moments get captured in my mind like a camera, creating snapshots of my memories to never let them go. I hold a lot in, but write everything down, as it's the only way I know to express my feelings. 58 stories on how couples over age 50 found love later in life This Christmas join the De La Fuentes and McKenzies in Blossom Creek as they celebrate the grand opening of Emelia's Restaurant. While his sister is distracted, Levi finds himself in need of rescuing from a rather embarrassing situation. Luckily for him, Vivien Taylor, owner of Temptations, Blossom Creek's handmade chocolate store, appears just at the right time. If only he didn't crave the sweet woman, then maybe, this situation wouldn't be so awkward. Blossom Creek just might be warm enough to melt the snow this holiday season. Brief stories of whimsy, folly, and the far-fetched. But are they, really? Jarmy strides out boldly on day hikes of the imagination, conjuring human experiences that maybe are more like the world as it should be. These tales bid that we let their author hold us captive to his musings. The only risk is to our entrenched views of life as it is, as it's been drummed into us to only be. 2003 2005 Poet of the Year Shakespeare Award of Excellence recipient The Love Scrolls Seven The Love Scrolls is an epic to literally sweep you off your feet. The first in a gorgeous new series from the bestselling author of the Chocolate Box Girls and the perfect next step for fans of Jacqueline Wilson. One can watch many baseball games before seeing a triple play. With this book E. Ethelbert Miller completes his baseball trilogy. How I Found Love Behind the Catcher's Mask is a collection of poems that celebrates baseball by putting a spin on how the game brings meaning to one's life. Well known Washington, D.C. poet, former Howard University professor, and literary activist, Ethelbert Miller is personal and political when writing from the batter's box or pitching mound. Here are poems that tip their caps to Joe DiMaggio, Ken Griffey Sr., and Emmett Ashford. Miller's book does not duck from examining the Black Sox Scandal, the career of Glenn Burke or the tragedy of Carl Mays. Miller's own life at times is a playing field for sadness and what Ellington called "mood indigo." But his love for baseball is a complete game and continues to reflect the hard heat of pleasure. After If God Invented Baseball and When Your Wife Has Tommy John Surgery and other Baseball Stories, this book, like a triple play, is a thing of beauty. "Baseball should create a new position, poet laureate, and give it to E. Ethelbert Miller. In his third collection of baseball poems ('a double turning into a trilogy,' as he writes), Miller weaves knuckleballs and pickoff throws with universal themes of family, race, relationships—and the issues of our time, like rioting and voting rights. With allusions to Monbouquette and Giacometti, Henderson and Danticat, How I Found Love Behind the Catcher's Mask will make you laugh, think and feel a whole new way about baseball and the world around it."—Tyler Kepner, national baseball columnist for the New York Times and author of the best-selling K: A History of Baseball In Ten Pitches "Ethelbert Miller is one of the most significant and influential poets of our time." --Gwendolyn Brooks

When Allegra Huston was four years old, her mother was killed in a car crash. Soon afterward, she was introduced to an intimidating man wreathed in cigar smoke -- the legendary film director John Huston -- with the words, "This is your father." So began an extraordinary odyssey: from the magical Huston estate in Ireland to the Long Island suburbs to a hidden paradise in Mexico -- and, at the side of her older sister, Anjelica, into the hilltop retreats of Jack Nicholson, Ryan O'Neal, and Marlon Brando. Allegra's is the penetrating gaze of an outsider never quite sure if she belongs in this rarefied world and of a motherless child trying to make sense of her famous, fragmented family. Then, at the age of twelve, Allegra's precarious sense of self was shattered when she was, once more, introduced to her father -- her real one this time, the British aristocrat and historian John Julius Norwich. At the heart of Love Child is Allegra's search through the unreliable certainties of memory for the widely adored mother she never knew -- the ghost who shadowed her childhood and left her in a web of awkward and unwelcome truths. With clear-eyed tenderness, Allegra tells of how she forged bonds with both her famous fathers, transforming her mother's difficult legacy into a hard-won blessing. Beautifully written and forensically honest, Love Child is a seductive insight into one of Hollywood's great dynasties and the story of how, in a family that defied convention, one woman found her balance on the shifting sands of conflicting loyalties. About this series: I'd never been to New York City before, but I knew I would love it and wanted to write a story that was set in the most exciting city in the world. So I hopped on a plane with my friend Susan and spent 5 whirlwind days there, soaking up the culture, seeing the sights and nailing down the scenes that would eventually end up in this series. Those of you familiar with New York City know what I'm talking about when I say you just can't beat Russ and Daughters' bagels, Central Park, Times Square, Brooklyn, and Yonah Schimmels' knishes. From the influential and ever-growing movement I Am Second, a remarkable collection of stories of people searching for and finding love. Although the organization has exploded in size and influence since, that original mission has remained the same--and continues to have enormous power and influence today. I Found Love is the highly anticipated new book from I Am Second, gathering together stories of people who searched everywhere for fulfillment and wholeness and found it only when they surrendered to God. People whose stories appear include the following, among others: David and Tamela Mann Jason Castro Sean Lowe Stephen Baldwin Moving, compelling, and profoundly inspiring, the stories found here remind us that our hearts will always be restless until they find their rest in God and always unsatisfied until we find the love of God. It highlights the journey by Jane King from being terribly unhappy and in deep emotional pain to finding her true love, a man who loves her with all his heart and for whom she is able to love unconditionally. Indeed, Jane needed to learn to love herself, before she could ask that of someone else. Surviving a difficult childhood, and a stepmother who was jealous and destructive, Jane was left with many self-doubts and a conviction that she really was not lovable. As the years went by, her emotional pain became almost more than she could bear. After praying to God for help, God sent her what Jane considers an answer to her prayer, the key to reprogramming her subconscious mind and replacing all those negative messages with positive ones. In this small book, Jane shows just how reprogramming worked for her; and having found true love, Jane has the deepest desire to help her readers learn to love themselves, so they too can find love and happiness.
